

Developers Forum

Organized by SIG-11 (Computer Applications Special Interest Group)

The Developers Forum provides a unique opportunity for both large and small developers to obtain feedback on their products and to discuss ideas for new products and enhancements with engineers, rehab technologists, therapists, consumers, and others in the field of assistive technology. The Forum's focus is on computer-based assistive technology, including computer software and hardware, AAC devices, and environmental control devices. The Forum is open to all attendees at the RESNA 2005 conference. The Developers Forum is to be held during the RESNA 2005 Conference at the Hyatt Regency in Atlanta on Saturday, June 25th from 7-9 pm in the Computer Technology Lab. Macintosh and PC platforms will be available in the lab or you can use your own laptop computer. You may load your software into the lab's computer for trial throughout the time the computer labs is operating, if you choose. Contact Denis Anson, Lab Coordinator at danson@misericordia.edu (570/ 674-6413) if you have any further questions about what will be available in the computer lab. Contact Robert Van Etten at vanetten@adelephia.net (772/781-6153) if you have questions about the Developers Forum.
